

When do I have to pay for renewing a trademark?

The payment of a renewal must be made and proved within six months following the acceptance of the renewal application. However, from the second month of the acceptance, there is a 20% surcharge for each month or fraction of a month. Therefore it is suggested to always pay and submit proof of the payment within the first month of the period of 6 months.